Listening Response Sheet for 'Love That Dog' Name
Choose a line from each section of the story that paint a vivid picture with words. Copy the line and draw the image that the words create in your mind, as you read or listen to them.
1	2
3	4
5	6

Listening Response Sheet continued

Option 1: List 3 things you liked, and 3 things you didn't like, about the story. Remember to include capital letters and periods at the start and end of each sentence, and to respond in complete sentences that begin with the words; I liked or I didn't like,

Likes:
1
2
3
Dislikes:
1
2
3
not, and why. Remember to use capital letters and periods at the start and end of each sentence, and to follow the 'hamburger format' we learned in class: state your opinion (use language that hooks the reader), give 3 different reasons to support your opinion (use transition words such as: first of all, secondly, and lastly), and re-state opinion in a new way.